

Proclamation

WHEREAS, Colorado is committed to ensuring the health and vitality of our youth by providing them with opportunities to reconnect with the outdoors; and

WHEREAS, we are committed to building an environmental stewardship ethic in people of all ages; and

WHEREAS, we recognize the value of science education as a foundation for career success and future civic engagement; and

WHEREAS, we believe that all Coloradans benefit when businesses conduct their activities in a sustainable way; and

WHEREAS, Samuel and Kelly Bronfman have spent countless hours leading Walking Mountains Science Center as members of the board and committees; and

WHEREAS, Sam and Kelly Bronfman, have in the past and, continue to provide significant support to this organization; and

WHEREAS, Sam and Kelly Bronfman have spent a lifetime providing leadership and financial support to countless other organizations, including Save the Bay, Peninsula Open Space Trust, Eagle Valley Land Trust, Colorado Conservation Trust, and the Stanford University Hospital, that have transformed their communities and improved the lives of Coloradans; and

WHEREAS, we recognize and commend Sam and Kelly Bronfman as recipients of the Reach for the Peak Award granted by Walking Mountains Science Center; and

WHEREAS, we encourage Coloradans to visit Walking Mountains Science Center and to support their many programs which add so much to the lives of youth, adults, and families in our state;

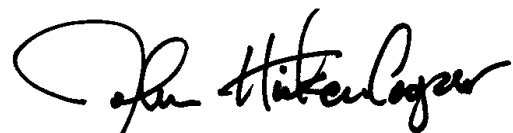

Therefore, I, John W. Hickenlooper, Governor of the entire State of Colorado, do hereby proclaim, forever after, July 7, 2015, as in the State of Colorado.

SAM AND KELLY BRONFMAN DAY

GIVEN under my hand and the Executive Seal of the State of Colorado, this seventh day of July, 2015

John W. Hickenlooper
Governor